September 2013

Dear All,

Below is our September report on the developments at the HFSB.

New Signatories

We are delighted to welcome new additions to the HFSB family:

Signatories

- Pictet Asset Management (Switzerland)
- Reservoir Capital Group (USA)
- Three Bridges Capital (USA)

New Core Supporter

We are also very pleased to inform you that in addition to becoming a signatory, Reservoir Capital Group has confirmed its commitment as a Core Supporter of the HFSB.

Institutional Investor Roundtable in New York

On 23 October 2013 we are organising an institutional investor roundtable in New York. Our event will be hosted by Investcorp, a Core Supporter of the HFSB and targeted towards Endowments, Foundations and Pension Funds. The roundtable will be dedicated to tackling due diligence challenges by investors.

HFSB in Hong Kong and Singapore

Dame Amelia Fawcett and Thomas Deinet are scheduled to meet in October with the HFSB Signatories, Investor Chapter members, Core Supporters and business leaders in Hong Kong and Singapore to discuss current regulatory developments and update them on the HFSB's global campaign.

Public Speaking

Thomas Deinet spoke at the following events in September:

- HFM Week Hedge Fund COO Forum, Surrey, 16-17 September, 2013
- Annual Albourne client gathering HedgeCraic, Dublin, 23-26 September, 2013

Dame Amelia Fawcett will speak at the Bermuda Monetary Authority's International Regulatory Forum scheduled for 19 November 2013. The event will cover banking, hedge fund and insurance issues and will also include high-level panel discussions on the continuing evolution of global regulatory initiatives in relation to hedge fund and key developments in the asset management sector.

HFSB Annual North American Stakeholder Event

As previously reported, in November the HFSB will host its annual event in New York City for its North American stakeholders, which will also include a roundtable with the participation of the HFSB signatories, Investor Chapter members and Core Supporters. A separate invitation will be sent to the HFSB stakeholders shortly.

Re-Launch of the HFSB website

The HFSB has re-launched its website which now has a search function allowing one to look for our signatories on the basis of their strategy and region. We would like to take this opportunity to thank our signatories who agreed to share this information with us. Those signatories who have not had a chance to provide this information, please contact us.

APPENDIX

Pictet Asset Management	Pictet Asset Management (PAM) is the division of the Pictet Group responsible for institutional asset management. With over 650 employees, including 250 investment professionals, PAM operates from 17 centres worldwide. Their clients include some of the world's largest pension funds, mutual funds, sovereign wealth funds and financial institutions. The firm currently manages USD 143 billion in assets and offers a full range of active and quantitative investment solutions including equity, fixed income and alternative strategies for leading institutions globally. Alternative strategies at Pictet Asset Management started in 2004 with the launch of their first fund, a multi-strategy market neutral fund. Since then the firm has expanded its product range with L/S equity strategies and a credit L/S strategy responding to client demand for alternative sources of alpha within its return-seeking portfolios.
Reservoir Capital Group	Reservoir Capital Group is a privately held investment firm with a flexible, opportunistic investment approach. Reservoir invests directly in both public and private markets, as well as in partnership with investment teams through the creation of hedge funds and private equity firms in which the Reservoir funds are an owner. Founded in 1998, Reservoir is headquartered in New York. Reservoir currently has approximately $5.6 billion of capital under management across its fund strategies, including unfunded capital commitments and assuming all illiquid investments are valued at the general partner's estimated fair values as of June 30, 2013.

Three Bridges Capital	Three Bridges Capital Partners, LP is an independent, specialist investment management firm based in New York City led by Gene Salamon, focused on European Equities for qualified investors. The firm's flagship Long/Short Fund was launched in 2006 and a Long Only strategy is also available. Before launching the Fund, Gene was a Partner at Omega Advisors, where he was Portfolio Manager for a similar European equity Long/Short strategy. He has spent the past 19 years focused exclusively on European equities. The firm manages approximately $500 million for clients including institutional investors such as university endowments, foundations, public and private corporate pensions, sovereign wealth funds, family offices and funds of hedge funds.
